MAKING A SPLASH ON THE FARM

THE PARTY: M.K. Pritzker's second Evergreen Invitational, a Grand Prix equestrian event at her Wisconsin farm, fell this year on the rainiest day in Chicago history. But despite the downpour and road closures due to flooding, a valiant crowd of more than 600 gathered to watch riders and their sleek horses vie for the top prize of $75,000 THE PLAYERS: M.K. and her husband, J.B., welcomed friends including Arny Granat, Irene Michaels, Michael and Jacky Ferro, Bill and Maria Smithburg and more. After the final event of the day was canceled due to poor conditions on the course, riders Laura Engle, Maggie Jayne and Scott Lenkart split the purse THE BOTTOM LINE: The day raised $900,000 for Prentice Women's Hospital —AMALIE DRURY
