

A Grand Prix Preview

On Saturday, September 9, 140 guests traveled to the spectacularly beautiful horse farm of MK and Jay R. (J.B.) Pritzker in Bristol, Wisconsin for an equestrian Grand Prix Preview event to be remembered. Against a backdrop of rolling hills, ponds and a colorful race course, guests enjoyed a lavish, tented buffet with poached and grilled salmon, Moroccan chicken and charred beef tenderloin. Lunch was followed by a breathtaking, sometimes heart stopping, show jumping exhibition. John "Queenie" McQueen, equestrian sports commentator for The Outdoor Channel, served as Master of Ceremonies.

The Pritzkers hosted the exclusive event in anticipation of the inaugural Evergreen Invitational—the only equestrian event of its kind in the Chicago area—to be held in September, 2007. Proceeds from the Invitational will benefit innovative patient care programs at Prentice Women's Hospital of Northwestern Memorial Hospital. To learn more, visit www.evergreeninvitational.org. ■
